

THE MARSHALL REPUBLICAN.

Died In New Mexico.

J. Kemp Barnard, aged about 35 years, editor of the Sweet Springs Herald, died on Sunday, Sept. 24th, 1899 at Las Vegas, New Mexico, after an illness of some weeks with typhoid fever. Mr. Barnard was at the bed-side of his wife, who is very ill at Las Vegas, when stricken with the terrible fever, from which he died.

His remains will reach this city on Friday and will be interred in Ridge Park Cemetery.

Mr. Barnard leaves a wife, father, mother, three sisters and three brothers in this city. They are Miss Etta Laddie, Belle Ann Wilson, Ham and M. reyn Barnard.

Family Blasphemy.

Mrs M. M. Rutherford, living on College Hill went out some 3 miles in the country to the home of Mr. O'Donaldson on Monday where they were going after nuts and in the course of the morning the master (an old lady) turned over her shawl and the boy began driving the horses in a frantic manner and in her efforts to drive them away from the horses they took hold of her stinging her all over the head and face neck and hands, from which she has continued to suffer the most excruciating pain ever since.

An Artist's Den.

We had the pleasure of visiting the Art Studio of Miss Edith Leonard, and recently, which she has opened over Carpenter's Rock Store. We found it a pretty spot with fine light and the arrangement of each article therein, from the every corner with its comfortable couch and many Japanese pillows, the old wooden chair, conveniently near, to the highly colored and rather artistic pictures that grace the walls; all spoke volumes and stamped it as the den of an artist. Some beautiful water colors were on exhibition, that proved that Miss Leonard is master of the brush and she understands the art of imparting to others what the brush can do. She has a very interesting class, which will increase in numbers as the cool weather approaches.

Premium Babies.

The premiums were awarded as the prettiest baby under 1 year and the prettiest baby 2 years and 2 years, on Monday morning at eleven o'clock at night. Mrs. W. B. Benton of Ardmore, Mo., was awarded the premium in the class given by J. H. May, the prettiest baby boy, Mrs. George Phillips of Marshall received the best of awards given by A. E. Laddie for the handsomest girl baby.

There is nothing so sweet in life as a baby, and it was a difficult matter indeed for the judges to decide which of these little ones was the prettiest or sweetest and consequently a task with the judges, and with the mothers, although they deserved no punishment. These old men seem jealous of the judges for the results and every body don't see either you know.

Woodchilly Mist.

Madison Eva Tandy Kinsella has created a sensation during her stay in Marshall. She appeared before the physicians of Marshall on Saturday morning at Hotel 1000, where she was examined by each physician, all decided that she was "genuine" and the number of the age, she looks no more than 16, according with her clothing, was dressed through her sunburned nose and cheeks and causing her at the time of examination, to have her eyes well up and she sniffed continually as if she were going to cry. She is still here.

Corn Stalks.

The Woods & Hutton Building is now in full bloom, the windows being filled with various kinds of fresh vegetables, the decorations more elegant, all the colors being gay. Herbs, flowers and the house after the while there were many visitors, including Marshall, Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Leonard and The Woods & Hutton Building owner, while opposite to Kress' was on the left. This was a grand sight in a government building, Woods & Hutton have done much there, and I think it is a credit to our city, especially to the people who live here.

The Young Girls.

With the coming of autumn out of the door the young girls, the girls all in the same place, are wearing long garments as F. W. Hinman, their teacher, The manager of The Confectionery Emporium, said, "The girls are in great demand, we have a good many girls in the neighborhood, and the girls are in great demand." The girls are in great demand, and the girls are in great demand.

Art Society Entertained.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian Church, under most delightful management, on last Tuesday, with Mrs. B. T. Whistler at her home on Capitol Hill.

Befiled here the intention of the ladies to go to White Sulphur, and have a week-end there, but the weather would not permit, so they decided to stay with Mrs. Whistler, who always gives one or two or three days of unusual pleasure. An elegant dinner in the form of a repast, and the table fully covered with its glass and crystal, ranged to match the menu.

Those present were Mrs. James Robinson, G. H. Nichols, Mrs. J. C. Jones, J. W. Davis, Mrs. S. C. Nichols, Mrs. W. W. Nichols, Mrs. C. C. Nichols, and Mrs. C. M. Nichols.

CCC Club Organized.

Miss D. J. Leonard organized a club for young women called "The CCC Club," for the purpose of furthering education and social life.

They have a room in the rear of the Woods & Hutton Building, and the girls are in great demand, and the girls are in great demand.

the hands through the month. Always wash the hands on coming out of a sick room.

Keep coffee by itself, as its odor affects other articles. Keep tea in a closed chest or canister.

Mustard water is said to be excellent for cleansing the hands after handling odorous substances.

Dusting cloths must be washed often, or they will carry more dirt into the rooms than they take out.

To test antiques, prick them with a pin, and if they are good the oil will instantly spread around the puncture.

To remove grease from coat collars, and the glossy look from the shoes and seams, rub with a cloth dipped in ammonia.

To soon knives easily, mix a small quantity of baking-soda with your steel, dip and see if your knives do not polish better.

If flat irons become rough or sticky, lay a little fine salt on a flat surface and rub them well. It will smooth them and prevent sticking.

To remove mildew rub common salt on a soap on the damaged article, and then sit some starch on that, wash and pat out in the sun.

Change of Firm.

The firm L. D. Hicks has changed hands and in the future will be known as "Meriwether Bros." having three from Jackson, Tenn., acting with us. Only one of the three has arrived, but the other two, Mr. A. J. Meriwether, will arrive in the near future. The new firm gives the new firm a warm welcome wishing them abundant success.

I regret to know that Mr. A. J. and his excellent family will移居 to Atlanta.

Political Rating.

Miss Delta Rhodes of Slater, contributed largely to the display of the Marshall fair. Her large tapestry painting is certainly a fine specimen of her work and received much attention. It was a matter of regret that there was no permanent office for it.

C. Collins.

J. C. Collins, aged 80 years, brother of John B. Collins, a highly respected citizen of saline, died at his home near Slater on Friday, September 23rd.

He always was a man without a bad word to say, known throughout the county. The funeral and burial took place on Saturday at Glasgow.
